The Collect (Opening Prayer) for the Feast of St Margaret of Antioch

Almighty God,

by whose grace and power your holy martyr Margaret of Antioch triumphed over suffering and was faithful unto death:

strengthen us with your grace, that we may endure reproach and persecution and faithfully bear witness to the name of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Reading from the Old Testament – Wisdom 4:10-15

There were some who pleased God and were loved by him, and while living among sinners were taken up.

They were caught up so that evil might not change their understanding or guile deceive their souls.

For the fascination of wickedness obscures what is good,
and roving desire perverts the innocent mind.

Being perfected in a short time, they fulfilled long years;

for their souls were pleasing to the Lord, therefore he took them quickly from the midst of wickedness.

Yet the peoples saw and did not understand,

or take such a thing to heart,

that God’s grace and mercy are with his elect,

and that he watches over his holy ones.

The Gospel Reading – John 15:18-21

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘If the world hates you, be aware that it hated me before it hated you. If you belonged to the world, the world would love you as its own. Because you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world—therefore the world hates you. Remember the word that I said to you, “Servants are not greater than their master.” If they persecuted me, they will persecute you; if they kept my word, they will keep yours also. But they will do all these things to you on account of my name, because they do not know him who sent me.

Post-communion Prayer

Eternal God,
who gave us this holy meal
in which we have celebrated the glory of the cross and the victory of your martyr Margaret of Antioch:
by our communion with Christ
in his saving death and resurrection, give us with all your saints the courage to conquer evil and so to share the fruit of the tree of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.
