The Collect (Opening Prayer) for the Ninth Sunday after Trinity

Almighty God, who sent your Holy Spirit
to be the life and light of your Church:
open our hearts to the riches of your grace,
that we may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit
in love and joy and peace;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Reading from the Old Testament – 2 Kings 4:42-end

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing food from the first fruits to the man of God: twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, 'Give it to the people and let them eat.' But his servant said, 'How can I set this before a hundred people?' So he repeated, 'Give it to the people and let them eat, for thus says the Lord, "They shall eat and have some left."' He set it before them, they ate, and had some left, according to the word of the Lord.

The Gospel Reading – John 6:1-21

Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming towards him, Jesus said to Philip, 'Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?' He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, 'Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little.' One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, 'There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?' Jesus said, 'Make the people sit down.' Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, 'Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost.' So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, 'This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world.'

When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake, got into a boat, and started across the lake to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. The lake became rough because a strong wind was blowing. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the lake and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. But he said to them, 'It is I; do not be afraid.' Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land towards which they were going.

Post-communion Prayer

Holy Father,

who gathered us here around the table of your Son

to share this meal with the whole household of God:

in that new world where you reveal the fullness of your peace,

gather people of every race and language to share in the eternal banquet of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

NEXT SUNDAY'S READINGS – THE TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD

DANIEL 7:9-10, 13-14, LUKE 9:28-36

Urgently needed this week: tinned chilli con carne, tinned hot dogs, tinned meatballs, tinned chicken curry, tinned fruit, biscuits, coffee. They have plenty of baked beans and dried pasta for now. Thanks for your continued support of the Foodbank. Please pray for its work.

St Margaret's CofE School

Please do stop and take a look at the creative artwork done by the children of our school to celebrate St Margaret's Day this year.

Book Club

Next meeting on Thursday 2nd August at 1400 in St Margaret's Cottage, with discussion on How Hard Can It Be? by Alison Pearson. I would encourage everyone to read this sharp, witty, well-observed tale of family dynamics. £2.50 including tea/coffee and biscuits. On 6th September we will have an Open Day picnic to welcome anyone who just wants to see who we are, what we do and who might like to join us whilst having a drink and a bite to eat. Joyce Bourne.

Driver/Carer Required

Disabled man using a powered wheelchair and who has his own fully insured and adapted car is seeking a regular Driver/Carer for outings (possibly 3 a week) in and around Brighton and Sussex. The job includes some care support. Hours flexible and variable by agreement - £10 per hour.

Open Garden in aid of Macmillan

Duncan and Gerard welcome you to their Open Garden for the Macmillan Coastal Garden Trail on Saturday 28th and Sunday 29th July between 1100 and 1700 at Boxworth, 21 Tor Road, Peacehaven, BN10 7SX. Entry £2 per garden or £6 for a day ticket. Teas, coffees and homemade cakes available. Live music from Mark Danieletto on Saturday afternoon.

Children's Church and Family Services

From September this year, our Children's Church will meet regularly on the third Sunday of each month. Also from September, the 1000 service on the first Sunday of each month will be a Family Parish Eucharist. Please do encourage families, children and young people to join us.

Floodlighting

The church is being floodlit at night in the month of July by Sally Phillips in loving memory of her mother, Patricia Kemp, who died last year. If you would like to sponsor the floodlighting in 2019, we suggest a minimum donation of £30 for a month.
